Membership in the Georgia Industrial Loan Association is non-transferable. If the ownership/partnership of the corporation changes, then the company will have to re-apply for membership in the Georgia Industrial Loan Association.

I understand that all offices under management or ownership (in Georgia) must also become dues paying members in order to qualify this application for membership. However, members with multiple offices, shall not be required to pay dues beyond the maximum number of 42 branches.

I pledge my complete cooperation and support of the efforts of the Georgia Industrial Loan Association and will uphold the constitution and by-laws as set forth by the Board of Directors. I will also conduct my business in a way that reflects positively on the credit industry and will set an example, as to discourage the practice of unethical behavior for myself, my employees, and my competitors, as described in the Code of Ethics.
